

Media Contact:

Heather Hansen
Humanity Communications Collective
Heather@humanitycom.com
410-991-4444

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS ABOUT UPCOMING SUNDIATA ACOLI ORAL ARGUMENTS TO SUPPORT PAROLE

Overview:

- The Court will decide if the parole board violated the law by denying Sundiata Acoli's petition for release.
- The Court has the power to order Sundiata's release. The Court decision may not be made for several months.
- Sundiata's case is now the leading parole case in New Jersey.
- The Court will decide how many Justices will hear the arguments of counsel.

Bruce Afran, Esq. is representing Sundiata.

There will be three other lawyers arguing on behalf of the amici (friends of the court) who filed briefs in support of Sundiata.

1. Joseph Russo, Esq. is representing the New Jersey Office of the Public Defender
2. Alex Shalom, Esq. is representing the New Jersey Chapter of the American Civil Liberties Union
3. Raymond Brown Jr., Esq. of the law firm of Pashman Stein Walder Hayden P.C. is representing the New Jersey Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers

The New Jersey Attorney General is representing the Parole Board.

Additional information:

- About Sundiata Acoli and His Case

- Sundiata Acoli Legal Case Backgrounder
- Read the Amicus Briefs
- Other Media Resources

###